

SEND resources list for parents/carers

Your child's SENCo (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Co-Ordinator) at school is your key resource to accessing a wealth of advice and support for you and your child. Co-Production between parents and carers and school will ensure that your child with SEND receives the best support available.

Below is a short list of other resources and support that can be accessed during the summer holidays and into the year ahead. Please do contact them: they are there to help!

The SEND Hub: Telephone 0161 217 6028 and press option 2.

This new support hub is open to anyone, including carers and professionals. It is part of the Council's 'early help' support structure to support residents during this difficult time.
