PSHE Update

You may recall at the September welcome meetings that I spoke about our school development work and in particular the progress we have made over the past year in personal, social, health education (PSHE).

We have

- ◆ Mapped our teaching of protected characteristics across the whole curriculum. (identified with icons)
- ◆ Ensured that we have a rich diet of picture books and other resources to support this teaching.

ATTENDANCE POLICY – New DFE policy

The DFE have introduced a new attendance policy. Stockport council has recently been producing a council wide version for governing boards to adopt. One of the key changes to be aware of is that the policy sets out the new National Framework for issuing penalty notices and reflects changes to the law introduced through the Education (Penalty Notices) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2024. Once the governing body have agreed on their approach, I will send parents a letter regarding these changes, so that you have the information you need prior to making term time absence requests.
